TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1873.

So Am I.—A young New York gentleman stopping at one of the lower hotels, requested the proprietor to change his room, as the next apartment to his own was occupied by that torment to bachelors, a crying baby. When he arrived from New York he went off to have a drive, and on his return to the hotel he was shown to his new apartment with the information that the baggage of the former occupant had not yet been removed, but that it would be taken away during the course of the evening. It was growing dark, so our hero sat down by the window to indulge in a little twilight meditation, and possibly a cigar. Suddenly the door opened, the front-frou of a woman's dress was heard, a soft voice exclaimed, "Why, Jack, dear, when did you come down? I am so glad!" and simultaneously with the exclamation he found himself.

Tenderly clasped in a loving embrace, with a pair of long lashes just sweeping his face.

"So am I," was his very natural and voluntary rejoinder, whereupon there was a shriek, a rush, a slamming of doors, and my friend was left alone to meditate at leisure upon the charms of the twilight hour.—[Letter from Long Branch.]

FLORENCE.

Special attention is called to the great improvements made recently in this excellent Machine, and to the new and elegant styles of Cases added to our list.

FLORENCE.

For those who prefer a Machine feeding the work away from the operator, we now have one of that description, quiet, easy-running and having all the other peculiar excellencies of the other style.

FLORENCE.

I sure to please. If there is one within a thousand miles of San Francisco not working well, I will attend to it without charge to the owner. SAMUEL HILL, Agent.

FLORENCE.

I's the only Machine that can be used in the various directions—having a reversible feed—a great advantage in fastening ends of webs in quilting, etc.

Seminal Weakness.

It is the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with the most rapid and fatal effect, a host of morbid symptoms unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringworm of the scalp, scrofula, sore throat, rashes or rations of chariot, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, indifference in socializing, sterility, a disposition to nervous irritability, a disposition to stin society, loss of memory, pimples and various eruptions and so forth, hectic flushed, tortured tongue, and toothache, consumption, emaciation, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief is not obtained, you should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by the new and scientific mode of treating disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure.

Cured at Home.
